Directed by Rebecca Hutchins and DA Halpin

It's not every day that a local theatre group can celebrate 50 years of performance in their own space, and it's not everyday that an organisation repeats a performance to honour this milestone. On April the 29th 1968 we had our first production on our currently used auditorium stage, this production was, The Miser. Directors, DA Halpin and Rebecca Hutchins, want to take you for a trip down memory lane in this classic French comedy. If you missed this 50 years ago... don't miss it this time. The Miser, one weekend only.

The 'FULL HOUSE BAR' opens one hour before the show
