Directed by Rebecca Hutchins

A Little Murder Never Hurt Anyone by Ron Bernas ... This six-character comedy is a spoof of and love letter to the screwball comedies of the 1930s and to stage mysteries in general, featuring witty dialogue and laugh-out-loud slapstick comedy. The play opens with the rich, bored Matthew promising to kill his rich, bored wife Julia so he can become a jet setter like his friend who recently lost his wife. Julia, who's always about three steps ahead of him, plays along. And so, the game of cat and mouse begins - a hilarious year-long match of wits and the witless.
