

Photo Gallery - "The Sentimental Bloke" (1971)

Last Updated Saturday, 07 March 2020

"The Sentimental Bloke" 1971 Directed by Helen Cattermull and Gordon Dick Musical Director Lois Cottell

Based on the famous C J Dennis poems, made into a silent film in 1918, then stage play in 1922, a talkie in 1932 and a musical in the 50s.

It was the first Australian musical Players had presented.

It is set around a pickle factory in Spadgers Lane, a slum area of Melbourne in 1913.

Our 1971 program announced subscribers would receive two tickets to each major production at a cost of $6 per year.

(L to R): Bill Faine (Ginger Mick) John Stoutley (The Bloke) Cathy Savage (Rose) Betty Shaw (Doreen) (L to R):

John Snell (the Stror 'At Coot) was a favourite with Pickalilli Lil's factory girls, including Lyn (Magee) Greer (left) and

Wendy Watts (right). Guys on the left are Don Smith, Larry Ryan (Choreographer) and Ian Murdoch (L to R): Dudley Nelson as Mr. Capper, Sherry (Cherry Maughan) Barnes as Sal and Bill Faine as Ginger

Mick (L to R): Dudley Nelson as Mr. Capper, Sherry (Cherry Maughan) Barnes as Sal and Bill Faine as Ginger

(L to R): Dudley Nelson as Mr. Capper, Sherry (Cherry Maughan) Barnes as Sal and Bill Faine as Ginger