Directed by REBECCA HUTCHINS
Musical Direction by CHRIS ARNOLD and LAURA LINGWOOD

The Drowsy Chaperone is a musical parody of American musical comedies of the 1920s. The story concerns a middle-aged, asocial musical theatre fan, as he plays the record of his favourite musical, the (fictional) 1928 hit 'The Drowsy Chaperone'. The show comes to life onstage as he wryly comments on the music, story, and actors. 'The Drowsy Chaperone' debuted in Toronto and opened on Broadway in 2006. It will be a fun-filled night of light-hearted entertainment for the whole family

We would like to thank Judith Hayhoe for all her hard work during the rehearsal process. Regrettably, Judith was not able to continue in her role as 'Mrs Tottendale', but we thank Sherry for coming on board at short notice. We wish Judith the best and a speedy recovery.

From the Director ...

The first professional production of 'The Drowsy Chaperone' I saw, I was delighted by the mocking yet warm-hearted storyline. Like all other theatre goes, as the lights go down at a production that I have not seen before, I cross my fingers and pray "Let it be a good show". 'The Drowsy Chaperone' does not disappoint. This hilarious musical comedy is packed with every gimmick, cliché, and gag executed to perfection. The Playhouse will bring this musical to life in our own unique way to suit our space, yet still remain faithful to the storyline and original concept. We hope you will laugh out loud and be enraptured.

Sincere thanks goes to all those on stage and off for your continued support, energy and enthusiasm.
